

Randal Charlton, author of "The Wicked Pilgrim", the story of his father, Warwick Charlton's creation and gift of the Mayflower II, to America in 1957, will be in the Plymouth area from August 4th to August 15th 2022 giving talks about his book and visiting organizations who have been awarded scholarships by his fund The Charlton Foundation.

During that time, and before, he can be contacted via email at randal.charlton@comcast.net or reached on his mobile 313-220-0361.

He is available for interviews from today.

Randal will be the guest speaker at the annual banquet of the John Howland Pilgrim Society on Friday August 12 at 6.30 pm.

The meeting and banquet will be at Gainsborough Hall in the visitor center at Plimoth Patuxet Museum.

His other appointments include

Friday August 5th: Alden House Duxbury

Saturday August 6th: 2 pm. Alden House Duxbury

Monday August 8th: Senior Center Plymouth

Tuesday August 9th, from 1.pm: "Books and Sundry" Plymouth

Friday August 12th: Howland banquet Plimoth Patuxet Museum

Saturday August 13th, from 2pm: Howland House Plymouth

Sunday August 14th: Reunion of families of sailors on Mayflower II

BOOK AVAILABLE AT HTTPS://WWW.THEWICKEDPILGRIM.COM